

Captain Douglas M. O’Leary
48 Commercial Street
Marblehead, MA 01945

Career Experience

1995 to Present	Maintenance Supervisor/Captain of R/V Mysis
1994-1995	Crew on fishing vessels engaged in lobstering, tub trawling and gill netting in Mass Bay and the Gulf of Maine
1993-1994	Reinauer Transportation Company, Staten Island, NY Captain, Tank Barge (coastwise) Mate, Tugboat (coastwise)
1988-1993	Boston Towing and transportation Company, Boston, MA Master, Vincent Tibbetts, Coastal Tank Vessel
1981-1988	Sun Transport Company, Inc. Aston, PA Master, Toledo Sun, Coastal Tank Vessel Company Pilot, Coastwise Pilot
1977-1981	Boston Fuel Transportation Company, Boston, MA Master, Chief Mate, Various Company-owned Coastal Tank
1961-1977	Shipped out with various deep sea companies aboard reefer, general cargo, passenger and tank ships as well as shipped aboard research vessels and commercial fishing vessels in the North Atlantic fisheries.

Education, Additional Training & Affiliations

United States Coast Guard Master License

B.S., Navigation and Seamanship, 1961, Massachusetts Maritime Academy, Buzzard’s Bay, MA.

Additional professional training includes fire fighting school, radar school, CPR & emergency medical care at sea, pollution abatement training, oil recovery, tank-barge dangerous liquids cargo handling, oil spill emergency response training, handling hazardous chemicals training, and vessel management seminars.

Licensed as Master of steam and motor vessels A.G.T. oceans with numerous pilotage endorsements.

Member of Diving Safety Board, Northeastern University

Member of Boston Marine Society, Nautical Research Guild, Cape Ann Ship Modelers Guild and Peabody Essex Museum.

Instructor as part of the Marine Studies Group at Northeastern University, one semester course, “The Evolution in Design and Construction of the American Fishing Schooner.” One week field trip aboard the Spirit of Massachusetts. Guest lecturer, “Marine Models – how to build them, their use in boat building and history”

Avid Marine model builder, ice skating instructor and ice hockey coach.